New Release

Annie's Tale ~ Belden's Girl

"Annie is new to the farm community, helping to take care of her Grandpa, who is 'soft in the head', as they say. She also learns to manage her disability of being blind in one eye, but that doesn't stop her from drawing everything she can see and imagine, right down to fishing at the creek with her new pals at Belden School."

The fourth book in the Belden Boy Series has arrived. Told from the perspective of a strong girl, Annie's Tale recently won the MOM'S CHOICE AWARD in the Gold Category. This tale helps to complete the Belden Boy anti-bullying children's series focusing on perspective from victim, bully and now the bystander, Annie.

Book series can be ordered online through the Whistleslick Press Bookstore.

Belden Boy Gives Back

Whistleslick Press is now donating a portion of sales to our furry friends, both big and small, who are homeless at shelters and farm sanctuaries. Follow us on Instagram for events and charities! #beldenboygivesback

Belden Boy Mobile Bookstore ◦ 1953 Chevy Truck

School or Library Visits

It's not too early to kick off a "Summer Reading" Program for your school or local library. Schedule a May visit for your school and the Belden Boy Mobile will drive up to the front door, of your school, loaded with bales of hay, spring flowers and bucket-loads of books to the surprise of your students and teachers.

Pop-Up Shop

The Belden Boy Mobile Book Truck is on a roll... Loaded with bales of hay, flowers, pumpkins and bucket-loads of books, we are driving the message of "reading and reading often" to Farmer's Markets, School Events, Book Fairs, Birthday Parties for children, Weddings, Author Signings, Small Business Events and more! If you are interested in having the Belden Boy Mobile Bookstore visit your location, reach out to us and we will create a "one-of-a-kind" event that will grab attention on social media!

Author and Educator, P.J. HarteNaus will autograph each book and speak to your students, encouraging them to burst that "summer slide" which often happens at the end of summer. This memorable experience will prepare your students for the year ahead as it is tied to the Common Core State Standards, available for Accelerated Reading tests and for those deep discussions at home or in the classroom about to bullying (special prices available for classroom sets). The Belden Boy Mobile can also create an Instagrammable Moment for your students and their family.

Whistleslick Press 2020 Sneak Peak

Coming Soon! A Middle Grade Novel from P. J. HarteNaus, author of the Belden Boy Series!

"The cellar, a place of punishment, a place where no child should ever be forced to go. Fayze's small hand pulled on the iron handle, but the heavy door wouldn't open. It was as if the door wanted no one to enter..."

Belden Boy Writing Camp

Do you have a budding author in your home? Would your child like to write and illustrate their own hard covered book in an 1859 one-room schoolhouse, home to the Belden Boy Series? Can you imagine your child working one-on-one with Literacy educators, including an author, as your child's skills are fine-tuned? Look no further ... here's a unique summer writing camp opportunity!

Mark July 7th - 9th, 2020 on your calendar this summer and visit www.beldenboy.com for information. Open enrollment April 15th, 2020. Possible second camp in late July, 2020.

As educators, we invite you to visit the three-day writing camp in summer of 2020 at Belden School, a one-room school house set deep in the woods of Galena.

You may have a budding author in the making!
